

Atomic Habits — Action Workbook

James Clear • Convert ideas into actions

Instructions: Write specific answers. Choose fewer actions and actually execute them. Review after 7 and 30 days.

1. Identity & Outcome

Who do I want to become?

What result would that identity naturally create?

2. My Keystone Habit

Choose ONE habit that would have the biggest positive effect.

Habit: _____

3. Four-Law Design

Cue / make obvious: _____

Craving / make attractive: _____

Response / make easy: _____

Reward / make satisfying: _____

4. Two-Minute Version

Shrink the habit until it can be started in about two minutes:

Atomic Habits — Action Workbook (Execution)

Turn the concepts into a repeatable personal system.

5. Environment Reset

- I will place a cue in visible reach.
- I will remove one source of friction.
- I will add friction to one unwanted habit.

7-Day Commitment

Write the exact time/place and track completion.

Time/place: _____

Day 1 ■ Day 2 ■ Day 3 ■ Day 4 ■ Day 5 ■ Day 6 ■ Day 7 ■

Review

What worked? What failed? What will I change next week?

30-Day Review

What did I actually change? What result did I see? What will I keep, stop or change?
